

Welcoming Delegation from Korea National Council on Social Welfare
On Thursday November 2, 2023 at Mahidol Building, NCSWT

On November 2, 2023, 1:00 pm, at NCSWT meeting room in Mahidol Building, Pol. Lt. Dr. Manus Nonuch, President of National Council on Social Welfare of Thailand (NCSWT) together with NCSWT Executive Administrators welcomed the 13 delegates from the Korea National Council on Social Welfare (KNCSW) led by President SangGuen Lee of Gyeongsangbuk-do Council on Social Welfare. The delegation comprised representatives from the Food Bank Department, Presidents of various provincial councils on social welfare, representative from the private sector (LG Company) and a Korean-Thai Interpreter. The group visited the NCSWT to learn and exchange experiences on key issues of food management to the poor and needy persons, the implementation of a royal project "Free Meals for the Needy", and the social welfare services to the distressed, the disabled, the poor and underprivileged.

The meeting was successful and satisfactory. Both parties expressed cooperation in various fields that would bring mutual benefits and strong friendships. Prof. Emeritus Dr. Chanita Rukspollmuang, Chair of International Affairs, was appointed the Focal Point for NCSWT to coordinate with KNCSW for future operation.
